To enter, just write and submit an essay of 500 words or less on this year's topic (see Rules and Eligibility for details).

The Air Force Club Membership Scholarship Program is just one more valuable benefit of your club membership.

Rules and Eligibility

To enter, provide an essay of no more than 500 words on the topic: "What freedom means to me." This requirement is strictly enforced; essays exceeding 500 words (excluding title) will be disqualified. Participants must also provide a single-page summary of their long-term career/life goals and previous accomplishments. The summary may include civic, athletic and academic awards and accomplishments. Both the summary and your essay must be attached to the entry application included in this brochure (photocopied forms are acceptable).

Essays must be typed in 12-point Arial, Times New Roman or equivalent font, single-spaced, with double-spacing between paragraphs, and submitted on standard white bond paper with one-inch margins. Submit your entry to your base Services commander/division chief by July 15, 2004. Each base will nominate a maximum of two scholarship essays for national competition. Final scholarship awards for the 2004-2005 school year will be announced by October 1, 2004. All nominees will be advised of scholarship selection or non-selection.

Current Air Force club members and their family members (e.g. spouse, son, daughter, stepson and stepdaughter) who have been accepted by or are enrolled in an accredited college or university for entry during the fall of 2004 term as a part-time or full-time student are eligible. Grandchildren who are dependents of the club member may also be eligible. Student enrollment status may involve either undergraduate or graduate curriculum. Services commanders/division chiefs, deputy commanders, flight chiefs, club managers, assistant club managers, marketing directors, staffs of MAJCOMs, HQ AFSVA, and HQ USAF/ILV, and family members of these individuals, are not eligible to participate.
